You cannot miss with a Taste of Home title. The recipes have family appeal and use readily available ingredients. Love the variety - sweets to main dishes for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Lots of photos, too.

Bought two of these for small Christmas gifts. Taste of Home makes the best cookbooks ever as far as I am concerned. I have many of them. I like that the recipes come from regular people and don't have a bunch of ingredients I have never heard of in them.

Taste of Home magazines have always had the best recipes in them! I have had subscriptions on several different ones throughout the years. I knew that these recipes would be really good. This cookbook will be used a lot, but I was looking for a little bit more simplicity in the recipes to use with my Grandkids. I'm sure if I had looked longer and more detailed I would have found a variety of Taste of Home cookbooks for cooking with young children.

I haven't really started making any of the recipes yet, but have looked at the book from cover to cover several times and am excited. There are so many recipes that I'm going to make for my family. Usually you may find one or two that you think you might try, but this cook book offers a lot. There are a lot that I can make ahead and then pop in the oven after church and have my Sunday dinner fixed and I am a big fan of doing that kind of dinner. I'm very pleased with this purchase.

Just what my wife wanted for a Christmas gift. She loves looking at different cookbooks and garnering new and different recipes. This fits the bill!

I love taste of home cookbooks as there are usually not a long list of ingredients and the food dish turns out everytime.

Wonderful cookbook. Love the beautiful pictures.

Another great cookbook from Taste of Home. This one is great for carry-in meals since all the recipes use a 9x13 pan.
