I just got married on July 12th. I was looking for fun games to play on our honeymoon to "get us in the mood". WOW! This book has them all! We started out with a crazy spin to the old game quarters. You know.. bounce a quarter into the.. well in the old game, it was a cup! and then you have to drink from it... Then moved onto game called "does it echo?" and "what goes in must come out". and our favorite - "Every Pussy Loves Milk". This book is worth every penny!! it sparked all kinds of fun and I'm pretty sure my wife plays some of the other games in there when I'm not around... So it's great for both of us!

I laughed so hard when I read this that the milk I was drinking was blown out through my nose all over the table. Don't pass up the chance to get this book!

I have given this a gift to 2 friends who are cat people and also have a very liberal sense of humor like myself. I think this should be awarded 10 stars and they would agree. One of the funniest books ever. Well thought out and would have been very funny without all the work but you can tell they spent the time to make this an epic.

We haven't slept for nearly a week since this arrived. I don't recommend getting a copy from the library though...I would suggestÂ The Muffin Muncher (A Serendipity Book), by Stephen Cosgrove as a companion volume Funny and silly. A little risqué but harmless. Truthfully made me think of pre-pubescent boys, but worth the price for the word play and a few giggles. Kinda took me back.

It was everything I expected it to be. Nuf said!!! :) I actually bought it as a gift for someone else but I wanted to keep it for myself.

Side-splitting laughs for true cat lovers this is a jewel in the crown of cat books. B.Kliban would be proud of what he started.
