Texas Chuckwagon Cuisine

Synopsis

Texas Chuckwagon Cuisine offers authentic cowboy trail cooking for the Dutch-oven enthusiast as well as for folks who want to make these traditional cowboy dishes in a modern kitchen.

Value-priced at a remarkable $5.95, this stock stuffer-sized cook book explores the lore behind cattleman Charles Goodnight's venerable invention, the chuck wagon. Author Evan Moore met chuck wagon legend Shedrick Hardy III on the historic 6666 Ranch more than 50 years ago and has been smitten with real West victuals ever since. Over the years, he has attempted to recreate parts of that meal Hardy prepared, always with what he knew to be the same ingredients, always with authentic cast iron skillets and seasoned Dutch ovens. The book shares Moore's favorite recipes for migas, sourdough biscuits, round up stew, chicken fried steak, stolen chicken, cornmeal cakes, Texas camp bread, splatter dabs, spotted pup, drunken peach cobbler and many others. Victuals that would hearten the most jaded, trail-weary cowhand. Many of the recipes are from champion Dutch oven competitors. For those without the patience to dig a pit and nurture a cook fire, the easy-to-follow recipes are also converted for use on contemporary stoves. Pocket size, perfect as an easy-to-mail stocking stuffer or house gift with a bottle of wine.

Customer Reviews

Moore has done his homework and crafted a perfect little book on chuck- wagon cooking. There's nothing quite as thorough, certainly not at this price. Great value.

I gave two friends cast iron dutch ovens last Christmas. I ordered this cookbook to go with the dutch oven so they could learn the art of "cowboy cooking". I was quite surprised when the tiny shipping package arrived with both books inside. The cookbook can fit in the palm of your hand...be sure to have reading glasses at the ready when it's time to cook!

Great book on cast iron and open fire cooking, recipes are clear and simple. Great history lesson on cattle drives, and Texas cooking. Worth the purchase price.

Evan Moore dared to place the words "Texas" and "Chuckwagon" together in the title of this cookbook. But there is no recipe for Brisket in it. I actually enjoyed reading the passage about working on the 666 ranch with Shedrick Hardy III. I bet he knew how to cook Brisket as well as the other recipes. So this cookbook, whatever else it is, can't be a 5 star cookbook because of the omission. And I am a huge fan of the genre.

This is a pretty good little cookbook. It's small but it contains some really good recipes. It also has some neat cowboy lore to go along with the recipes.

Good book, good service

Good book clear pics, good rest recipes, other written recipees I remember many men(Cowboys) I remembered as a child! TIS MINIMUM WORDS IS A WAST OF TIME!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
